The Promise of Urban Connectors Series
Pioneer Square Session
Waterfront Project Inspirations

Join us for for a compelling Beer & Culture focusing on The Promise of Urban Connectors in Pioneer Square to discuss opportunities for new connection(s) to the waterfront and other urban design possibilities resulting from, or otherwise inspired by, the Waterfront Project.

Topics include:

- Occidental at the Stadiums
- Railroad Way
- Enhancing King Street
- Ongoing Alley Activation
- Retail Restoration: East Side Alaskan Way

Help us envision key elements necessary to bring The Promise of Urban Connectors in Pioneer Square into reality to further enhance the experience of Seattle's Central Waterfront and neighboring communities. Belltown and Pike Place Market/West Edge areas will be discussed in upcoming sessions.

Light Refreshments Provided: The Kitchen by Delicatus
Doors Open 5:30
Program 6:30

Allied Arts was founded in 1954 under the name of "The Beer and Culture Society". More than fifty-five years later, we continue our outreach and advocacy throughout the Northwest Region. Our Beer & Culture events provide an informal setting for groups of energetic, public-spirited citizens to engage in free-ranging discussions on a variety of topics. The outcome of which may ultimately lead to civic action.
